

250 Knights Templar Will Invade Edmonton Next Week

Most Excellent Knight George Brown McLeod, Supreme Grand Master, 1921-1922.

WELCOME TO GUESTS

Edmonton, capital city of Alberta, gives welcome to its visitors from all parts of Canada. It is a willing host and hopes to be an acceptably entertaining city as well.

In 1901 the first railway connection was made, bringing with it the influx of thousands of people, creating a boom in population. The trail of '88, which led to the Yukon goldfields through Edmonton, made the town more widely known and eventually brought in more people.

In 1912 it became a city and in the following year it was made the capital of the newly formed province of Alberta.

As visitors see it today is the town of jubilee. It is the home of 40,000 people, covering a site of natural beauty on both sides of the Saskatchewan river, a centre of government, education and business, the entry-way into the great rich West and North beyond.

Though the star here of Templars from all parts of Canada must necessarily be brief, we trust that the associations and friendships begun at this time will grow and endure, and that the seed sown now will bear fruit in lasting and following years.

JOHN DUNLOP,
Presiding Preceptor, Edmonton Presidium No. 46.

East Delegates Come Sunday

Two hundred and fifty strong Knights Templar, members of the Sovereign Great Priory of Canada, and their families are headed for Edmonton for the 44th annual assembly of the order which meets in this city on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, August 8th, 9th and 10th. Every province in Canada will be represented.

Already the advance guard of the Knights Templar is in the city, but the first contingent is expected here on Sunday night, when about 20 Knights from Toronto and other Ontario points arrive here. They will be met at the station by a committee of local Knights, with automobiles, and escorted to their hotels.

Successing trains from all points will bring other members of the order from various centres in Canada, and on Tuesday morning the last contingent will arrive from Calgary, some thirty strong, to take part in the assembly.

FIRST SESSION MONDAY MORNING

First session of the assembly opens on Monday morning at 8:30 a.m. in the hall of the Grand Council, 1401 Macleod street. A second session of the Grand Council will be held at 2:30 p.m. on Monday night at 7:30 p.m. and on Tuesday night at 7:30 p.m. All Knights will assemble at the Grand Council hall and parade to the First Preceptory church, where dinner service will be conducted and an address delivered by Rev. Dr. D. M. McLeod, Grand Master of the Grand Council.

IN THE WORLD OF MUSIC

VIOLENCE IN PIANO PLAYING

The London Times, lived in two of Lily Nera recent recitals there by the enthusiasm of her American critics, raised to inquire: "When did this virtuoso in piano technique become justified in piano technique?" It goes on to say: "Her performance was among the most remarkable we have ever heard. There was an extraordinary assurance and strength about everything she did and if she uttered the music as though it had been hers, she uttered it as though it had been hers."

"There was violence in her playing, but it was not the mere noise of the hard hammer. It was rather the true expression of the spiritual violence which is one of the fundamental characteristics of Beethoven's music."

"Rarely can this aspect of his music have been so completely realized. Every apostrophe, every word, every change from fury to tenderness was given its meaning, so that the hard hammer was made effective."

"Madame Nera's treatment of the slow movements was perhaps even more profound in its beauty. She played them as though they were highly improvisations, as though the music were taking shape for the first time. The tenderness seemed to be precipitated like wonderful crystals from the fluid mass of sound. Yet there was not some vague wandering everything was seen to fall naturally into its proper place."

"Never has anyone been so closely in touch with the creative mind of the composer. Madame Nera told us more about Beethoven in an hour than all the articles and books which have recently poured from the printing press. Her art is interpretation, not mere art."

NEW ERA HERE, SAYS WRITER

"The day of the American artist is here," declares Alfred Hunsan, editor of the London Times, in an introductory note to a new booklet of a series of programs by the London Daily Mail. Mr. Hunsan explains: "The program will be given by Miss Dain, who is a young woman of great talent and serious purpose. She is all in phases, and has added to the repertoire of the London Daily Mail, a series of European culture. She sings everything and understands all sorts of the life of the spirit."

SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN

Plaintiff Anton Rostovsky has established such a reputation for his musical compositions that he has been invited to give a series of his summer program at the National Conservatory of Music in New York. It is a tradition which in his heart he has called "Qualitative." It consists of a series of compositions, beginning with Bach's "The Well-Tempered Clavier," and ending with his own "The Well-Tempered Clavier." VELIE SHOWS GREAT GAINS IN NEW SALES

Nation-wide registration figures available for 1927 show the Whippet's new car registrations have increased 27% over the same period for 1926, according to a statement from officials of the Velie Motors corporation, Motor, Illinois. This compares with a 17% decline in the automobile industry generally, the report states.

W. L. Velie, Jr., who recently returned from a tour throughout the western part of the country during which he visited Velie distributors and dealers, reports that the Velie impression in registrations can be explained by the superior quality of the Standard Six, put into production by Velie Motors this year. The Standard Six, fully equipped and incorporating such Velie features as an Automatic Type Motor and Velie's Noiseless Rubber Shackles, has been given an enthusiastic reception everywhere Mr. Velie visited.

THERE ISN'T GOING TO BE ANY WORST, WALT DEAR. THE JUDGE COULDN'T DECIDE AGAINST US AND BE HUMAN.

POOR OLD WALT. HE IS GOING TO TAKE IT TERRIBLY HARD IF THINGS DON'T COME OUR RIGHT. I WISH I WERE AS CONFIDENT AS I PRETEND TO HIM THAT I AM.
